Reading Suggestions

Read 3 to 4 pages, or about 15 to 20 minutes each day, regardless of the number of chapters read. The goal is daily involvement with God, learning from His Word and applying it in our lives.

Pray for insight and for God's guidance before and after reading.

One approach is to read some from the Old Testament, some from the New Testament each day. One can read through the New Testament twice in about the time it will take to read through the Old Testament once. You can also include daily readings from Psalm and Proverbs.

Read from more than one Bible version to gain additional insight and to better understand difficult passages. Reading from a Bible version such as the Easy-to-Read Version helps readers of all ages to better understand the Bible.

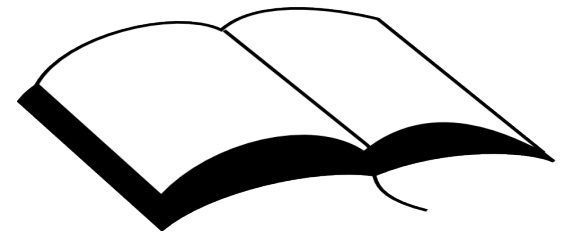

A good place to begin is reading the books of Genesis and Luke.

Record your reading progress by marking each chapter number read with a single / . Mark with an X when you read a chapter a second time.

A variety of Bible reading plans and versions are available on-line. Daily readings can be sent to your email address, tablet or smartphone. Two such locations are BibleGateway.com, and BiblePlan.org.

Don't quit or get discouraged if you miss one or more days. Just pick-up where you left off, and keep reading! May God bless you as you read His Word.
